Meet Our Instructors

Polky Village Band

Polky Village Band is based in Toronto and performs traditional Polish folk songs and dances from different regions in Poland.

Polky Village Band will be leading the Eastern European Dance workshop at camp, highlighting various Polish dances and similar dances from surrounding countries including Ukraine, Belarus, Slovakia, the Czech Republic, Hungary and Germany.

The workshop will be led by Alicja Stasiuk, a traditional dancer and dance teacher from Poland and Ewelina Ferenc, a singer and ethnomusicologist from Poland, accompanied on traditional instruments by Matti Palonen, Tristan Murphy, and Georgia Hathaway.

Diana Scott & Cassie Norton

Diana and Cassie will be our Kids Programming instructors this year, offering a number of activities designed with younger people in mind, but with no age limit on participants.

Diana Scott has been creating art and craft since she was a child. As an adult she has given many workshops for children, teenagers and adults, including: embroidery, group quilt construction, box making, puppet making, beading, knitting, crocheting, garment making and costuming.

Cassie Norton is a singer-songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, performer, composer and educator. She teaches violin and music at Regent Park School of music and performs regularly as a singer-songwriter and as a fiddler with number of different music groups: including Meg'n'Cas, Erik Bleich and Balfolk Toronto.

Oriane Edwards

Oriane is a passionate dancer that has travelled Europe learning many social dances! She leads weekly Balfolk dances in Toronto and is an energetic and lively dance instructor.

At camp, Oriane will be leading the Balfolk! Western European Folk Dance workshop which features bourrées, jiges, gavotte, mazurkas, waltzes, scottishes: some partner dances, some group dances, some snakey chain dances. They are all fun and easy to learn, you don't need any partners or prior experience. Oriane will show you how!
